

Use of fibrates/Omega 3 fatty acids is to reduce risk of pancreatitis and not to modify the CVD risk of the patient. Patients with triglyceride level of >5 mmol/L are at risk with levels >10 mmol/L at significantly higher risk of pancreatitis.

Please be aware that the combination of statin and fibrate increases the risk of myopathy.